Travelling rugby players from around the world are a fantastic way to build camaraderie and to supplement the local stocks with key talent not to mention learning a few different rugby songs. It's your responsibility to welcome new players when they arrive and link with local education institutions to recruit players.

Ideally, you'll need to be:

- Good at communicating, confident and outgoing
- Well-organised
- A player or ex-player who has a good feel for the game
- Enthusiastic and dedicated to your club

What you'll do:

- Manage on-line promotion and recruitment of players
- Liaise with businesses associated with the club to access potential employment opportunities
- Welcome new 'arriving' players
- Link new players seeking accommodation with our sponsoring real-estate businesses.
- Manage the Yabbies Pathways Program that links players with businesses for professional development through work experience or trade apprenticeships.

How much time it will take up:

Around 2-4 hours a week mostly at the beginning of the season

What you'll get out of it:

Thanks to you we we'll have the best chance of winning by ensuring we can select our best players and reserves to support the game-day operations. You'll meet all kinds of people, all of whom share a love of rugby, and will get great satisfaction knowing you're helping them start and keep their playing careers going.
